The 1871 Census for Haldimand Co. Walpole Twp. lists John and Catherine living on a 110 acre farm. Sometime between 1871 and 1877 the extended Smith/Schmidt family moved to Waterloo and Oxford Counties. The 1881, 1891 & 1901 Census for Blandford Twp. in Oxford Co. show John & Catherine and some of their six children living on a 100 acre farm. After John died Catherine is shown living with her daughters Sarah and Barbara in New Hamburg in the 1911 Census.
John & Catherine had the following children: Sarah M Smith (1868 - 1919), Peter Henry Smith (1870 - 1934), Barbara Smith (1876 - 1934), James (b. 1866) m Mary Wittmer (b.1870); Catherine (b.1873) m John Wright (b. 1867); John Wesley (b.1879) m Lillie Foerter (b.1887) (bio by: Doug Stapleton)

They are listed in the 1871 Census living in Wilmot Township, Waterloo Co. on a 100 acre farm on Concession 1. This would seem to indicate that the Zimmerman's were the first of the Schmidt clan to move just outside of New Hamburg as the others were all still living in Rainham that year. They farmed this land for many years but in 1911, the year Louisa died, they were living in New Hamburg. By 1921 John age 78 was living with his daughter Ida Gardner and her family in New Hamburg. He died at age 84 while visiting another daughter Clara Sitter in Sarnia. (bio by: Doug Stapleton)

Notes for June Lenore OTTERMAN:

Maternal grandfather of June was Frederick Held. (29 Dec. 1869-14 Feb.1951) He married Emma Christina Schurr (2May 1871 - 6 Jan. 1951)on 30 June 1891. Frederick's father was Christian Held II (4 Jan 1828 - 27 Oct. 1879) He was born in Alsace-Lorraine. He married Christina Rohrbach (21 Mar. 1833 - 12 June 1904) She, according to the church records, was born In Hangeweiler, France. In their marriage he, whose father had the inn/hotel in Nelles Corners, married into & took over the Erie Hotel in Fisherville.

Christina was the daughter of Jacob Rohrbach (22 June 1802 - 22 June 1868) (Church records say born 8 May, 1802). He owned the Fisherville hotel first off. Christina's mother was Margaretha Gerber (11 Feb. 1800 - 13 Feb. 1870) They were married in 1831. Both were natives of Hangeweiler France. Her church records read "Hangweiler".

Father of Chris Held II was Christian Held Sr. ,15 Oct. 1806 (church book says Sept.) to 12 Jan. 1880. Her married Margaretha Wiedmann (2 Nov. 1810 (Church records also say Sept.) to 2 Dec. 1891) in 1827. His place of birth is given as Alsace-Lorraine..

The oral version of the Held family history says that they migrated from the Alsace-Lorraine area of France to RainhamTownship in Upper Canada.

Christian Held I and his wife Margaretha, five children and two brothers "left Alsace Country, headed for Canada with their few worldly possessions, their God, and a dream."

They landed in the new world in America south of Boston. One brother disappeared there and was never seen or heard of again. The other unmarried brother stayed behind to look for him for one year. It is believed that the missing brother may have been "Shanghaied" aboard a whaler. Christian, his wife and Children trekked from there to Rainham Township with a couple of cattle and a dog, arriving there in 1839 after a pilgrimage of two years. Christian and Margaretha had four more children after arriving in Canada. Their unmarried brother lived with them always.

Generation 6 (con't)

Christian Held II (the hotel keeper) married Christian Rohrbach, they had eleven children, including two sets of twins. He died at age of 51, leaving a large family of young children. As he had no will there was a court order that the younger of the the children (Christian, Fred, Henry, Christina, & Edward) should become wards of the court. Because of this Peter Reichheld and Jacob Rohrbach posted Bonds of $1600.00 each, signed papers that they would be responsible for the welfare of the children so that Christina could raise her children at home.

Melbourne Held has copies of this court order and of the bonding and also a copy of the will of Christian Held I. There are old pictures of Christian and Christina and a photo of several of their children on a farm at hog butchering time. This is taken about 1900.

The unmarried brother of Christian Held I is listed as living with them in the census records of 1851, It is not clear what his name was. (Information from Roger and June Kohtz)
